

ABSTRACT

Disclosed is an optical film comprising a layer containing preformed porous polymer particles with a specific surface area of $10 \text{ m}^2/\text{g}$ or 5 greater and a median diameter from 1-20 μm in a radiation cured binder. Such a film provides an improved antiglare film with a minimal transmission haze penalty.